

Advanced Diploma of Program Management

BSB60720
CRICOS Code 116718J

COURSE OVERVIEW

This qualification signifies the role of individuals who utilise specialized knowledge and skills, along with experience in program management, across various enterprise and industry settings. Relevant job titles include Program Manager. These professionals are tasked with overseeing or directing programs to meet organisational goals. A program consists of multiple interrelated projects, each led by a project manager. At this level, individuals employ initiative and judgment to direct, plan, and lead various program functions, holding accountability for both personal and team outcomes within broad parameters. They leverage cognitive and communication skills to gather, analyse, and synthesise information from diverse sources, transferring their knowledge to others. Additionally, they use creative and conceptual skills to articulate ideas and perspectives or address complex issues
